

Week by Week God Is Growing Us!

More Testimonies of Coming Back to the Altar!

I first heard about the Back to the Altar 100 Days of Prayer at the South New South Wales Reginal Prayer Conference, where Melody Mason was speaking. She shared her testimony and experience. Interested, I joined the program online waiting for it to begin. My only hope was to enhance and grow my worship and prayer life.

When the 100 Days of Prayer began, I had no idea the changes it would bring, not only to my life but the lives of my family. Week one, I experienced more unrushed time with God in personal worship and prayer. Week three, I saw the reintroduction of family worship for myself and my children. Week six, I watched my husband of twenty-five years finally give up his thirty-five year smoking habit that he had been unable to quit. In week nine, we got busy and stopped our family worships. But by the end of the week our adult children both came to me asking that family worship be continued and that I would remind them to come. They told me that it had been helping them cope with the day-to-day stresses. Family worship had become vital for them. My husband also joined worship.

Throughout the 100 Days of Prayer, God has shown me miracle after miracle in how He has cared for us as a family. He taught me the importance of prayer, personal study, surrendering my all every day, and letting Him lead my plans. He has truly transformed my family. – Kate, Australia

I have had a very unhappy marriage. My wife, a non-Adventist, sometimes called me a pagan. We lived under one roof but had little in common. However, during week six of the Back to the Altar 100 Days of Prayer, I prayed for the Holy Spirit to help me love my family sacrificially. I apologized to my wife for all the wrong that I had done to her. She stood up, hugged me, and said, "Thank you for caring!" Life has since changed. Praise the LORD. – Dickson, Tanzania

I was addicted to my phone and would spend until midnight with my phone. But now I pray instead, and this has brought my deteriorating marriage back to the altar of God. This Back to the Altar 100 Days of Prayer journey has really made me realize my need for Jesus Christ every day in all that I do. I'm now free from phone addiction and enjoying a lovely home. All praise be to God. – Brightman, Ghana

I am so grateful to the Lord for the session on Scripture memorization and the techniques and tips to make it easier to memorize. I have already memorized my first two Bible chapters and I am moving on to the third. – Rose, Canada

- Nigeria: Pray for the 3,500 students who graduated from Babcock University this year. Pray that the seed of the Gospel, which God planted in their hearts while studying in this school, will continue to germinate and that those who have not surrendered their lives to Jesus will do so before He returns. Pray that these young people will be missionaries for heaven.
